1     AN ACT to amend 6.55 (6) of the statutes; relating to: allowing municipal clerks
2     to register voters on election day.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, election inspectors may register electors to vote at a polling place on election day. In addition, a municipality may provide, by adopting a resolution, that an inspector's registration duties may be performed by special registration deputies appointed by the municipal clerk or board of election commissioners.

Under this bill, an inspector's registration duties may be performed by the municipal clerk, if the clerk is not a candidate listed on the ballot, or by special registration deputies appointed by the municipal clerk or board of election commissioners, without the municipality first adopting a resolution to allow the procedure.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
